

This coming Saturday, the 30th, there will be a COOKING CLINIC here at UCM from 1:00 – 5:00 p.m. At least a part of the agenda will be baking for Sunday's Open House. If you like to cook, or don't know how and would like to learn, this is the place to be Saturday.

The following day, Sunday, the 31st, after church from 10:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. we are having an OPEN HOUSE. Come by to see our building and/or to visit with students and others who will be here.

We have WORSHIP each Sunday UCM at 5:00 p.m. in our chapel, followed by refreshments and fellowship in the lounge. This is an intercollegiate, community-wide service for students from all campus in the Terre Haute area as well as individuals from various congregations and the larger community. This week we will worship in the style of Taizé with scripture, prayer, music, and meditative silence.

Our chapel is available for MORNING MEDITATION every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 6:30 – 7:30 a.m. Everyone is welcome.

Each Tuesday I have LUNCH IN THE COMMONS at 11:30. Bring your lunch and join me, or just come by to get acquainted and visit. Look for our table with the United Campus Ministries sign. We about whatever is on your mind.

On Tuesday evenings at 5:30 we have THE BIBLE AND OUR LIVES here at UCM. We talk about the Bible and how it speaks to our lives today. Everyone is welcome (no previous Bible knowledge necessary).

Every Wednesday we have TABLE TALKS at 5:00 p.m. This is a time when we share a meal (often home-cooked) and have conversation around the table about whatever is on your mind.

FACULTY & FRIENDS DISCUSSION GROUP meets on Friday mornings from 8 – 9 a.m. We are presently discussing the book "The First Christmas" by Marcus Borg and John Crossen. Students, faculty, and staff, and community folks are all welcome.

We have plenty of quiet and comfortable study space for you to use.

Our chapel is always open to those who wish to have a quiet place to meditate or pray.

Of course, as an ordained minister, I stand ready to assist you as you deal with the stresses and concerns of your life.
